[From the Louisville Courier & Journal, Nov. 10.]

Suicide of Gen. H. E. Read---Particulars of the Tragedy.

Louisville was startled early last evening by the announcement on the streets, and in various public places, of the sudden death of General H. E. Read, a man whose name is inseparably connected with the history not only of his county, but with that of his own State of Kentucky; a man pure and upright as he was brave and generous, and whose loss will be felt long after he shall be laid to rest.

PARTICULARS OF THE SUICIDE.

At about five o'clock in the afternoon, Gen. Read was alone in the office of Major Buck Allen, in Court place, when the sharp report of a pistol was heard by some gentlemen in the adjoining offices, causing, very naturally, a little stir and a disposition to investigate. The sound seemed to have proceeded from Major Allen's office, and into was the first place to look. On the door being opened a terrible sight presented itself. General Read was lying upon a sofa, stark dead, and weltering in a dark pool of his own life-blood. His left hand rested upon his bosom, while in the right, which had dropped to the side of the sofa, a Derringer pistol was tightly clutched.—In the side of his head just above the right ear was an ugly wound where the charge of the deadly weapon had broken the skull. On the office table was found the following, written, apparently, in haste, but with a steady hand. It was that style of writing that always bespeaks the executive, impulsive man. Its tone seems to indicate a consciousness of the awful responsibility of the step he was to take, and of what the world might say.

A SAD FAREWELL TO LIFE.

My life has been one of varied successes, from the creation of my existence to the present moment. I have been the farmer's son, the mechanic, the soldier, the ministerial officer, the professional gentleman and the statesman; in all of which I am confident that I am entitled to respectful consideration. The pecuniary want of my life has at all times been embarrassing, which, perhaps, is the cause of my discomfiture, at least so much so as to render my life unhappy. So, with the fresh memory of the honor of my native State, and the love and kindness toward my family, I bid farewell to life. H. E. READ.

WHY GEN. READ COMMITTED SUICIDE.

From what Gen. Read had written, it was evident that pecuniary embarrassment had to do with the terrible resolution he formed of taking his own life. The man who had more than once charged up to the cannon's mouth and planted his country's flag where the hostile ensign of his country's foes had waved, had not the courage to live a thankless life or meet the frowns of fickle fortune.

He commenced life as a blacksmith, but soon made a lawyer of himself, as well as one of the most popular men in his section. In 1861 he was the Southern rights candidate for Congress in what was then the 11th district, but was beaten by Gov. Charles Wickliffe. He lived at different times at Hodgenville, Shelbyville and Elizabethtown, where he practiced law. Upon his return from the Mexican war, he was commissioned by Gov. Powell a brigadier general of militia. When the late civil war broke out he went South, taking with him from Hardin county a considerable body of men for the Confederate army. He was elected a member of the Confederate Congress, representing the Provisional Government of Kentucky, and when Stoneman raided on Richmond he was a sergeant in the Congressional company which was organized for active service in the Confederate army. In the battle of the Chickahominy he carried a private' musket and, if we are rightly informed, figured in other sanguinary contests in Virginia. After the war he came to this city and entered upon the practice of his profession. He was for some time a partner of Major Buck Allen, and boarded with his family at Mrs. Mitchell's, on Sixth street. He leaves a wife and several children.

Commencement of a "Radical War" on President-Elect Grant.

WENDELL PHILLIPS CRACKING HIS WHIP OVER HIS EARS—"A GOOD SOLDIER DOES NOT ALWAYS MAKE A GOOD STATESMAN."

Wendell Phillips ("the man that supplies the Republican party with brains," "the capacious chief, and leader of leaders," as he is styled by the New York Independent) is out in a double leaded article in the last Anti-Slavery Standard, over his own signature, in the course of which he says:

"If we were Grant, our joy in Vicksburg and the Wilderness would be drowned fathoms deep in shame, because history will have to tell that while we were in command of the army—and able to wield it uncontrolled, even in Louisiana, if we chose—the loyal men of New Orleans dared not approach the polls for fear of assassination. One word to the nation from Grant last Spring would have put Wade in the White House, and proclaimed martial law, if necessary, last week, in New Orleans. There are whispers that Grant favored impeachment—in the lobby. Those times wanted no lobby member. If the Lieutenant General of the United States had then announced to Congress that, in his opinion, the peace of the South could not be preserved with the policy then pursued, and unless that policy were changed, he would not blight his laurels by holding a sword he was not allowed to use, does any man suppose Fessenden would have dared to vote impeachment, even to revenge himself on Wade, to spite Mr. Sumner, or to keep his eleven cousins in office? If Grant were the man the nation now supposes him, he could not have kept silent at such a crisis. A man must love glory overmuch who would not cheerfully surrender all Grant's laurels rather than bear the guilt and shame of that responsibility not met.

It must be remembered that a good soldier does not necessarily make a great statesman. When we talk of statesmanship, where was it when Grant undertook to report the condition of ten millions of people, scattered over seven hundred thousand miles, after a visit of ten days? And what was his report?

In December, 1865, when every man not asleep knew of Johnson's treachery and its results at the South, Grant reported that acquiescence at the South was so "universal," its citizens so earnest in wishing to do what they think is required by the Government," that nothing but the mere form of a military force would be needed there! And if anything more should in any localities be needed, it would be among the freedmen, to prevent them from taking possession of the property of their former masters, and in the seaports.

Now, no freedman has ever lifted hand against the property of the whites, and, except New Orleans, the seaports are the safest places in the South. Was Grant misled by cunning men about him, or has he no insight of such investigation? Either alternative removes him from the list of statesmen. But, further than this, that problem does not need brains. A heart would have made all its intricacies blaze with light like a July moon.

These are the actions, that, for us, reveal Gen. Grant."

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.
Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever exhibited in the United States.

THIS BOILER OPERATES UPON PURELY philosophical principles.

It is self-acting and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the Clothes and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer by those who have used it.

All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket, can be washed perfectly and with ease without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable as the rubbing, rolling, and pressing process, must necessarily full them, more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

If the directions are strictly followed, success is certain.

The saving in the wear of clothes will very soon pay for the outlay.

It is estimated that 30 to 50 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.

Having purchased the exclusive interest and control of the Automatic Clothes Washer and Boiler, for North Carolina, we have established a depot in Raleigh, where we are prepared to fill orders or to sell COUNTY RIGHTS. Letters addressed to us at Raleigh, N. C., or Portsmouth, Va., will receive prompt attention.

"LET US HAVE PEACE."

This is the common sentiment of our whole people. But this sentiment is not confined to the general desire for quiet in the land and harmony with all sections, but for relief from crushing taxation and extravagant expenditure of the public money.

The action of the Radical State Convention and Legislature has indicated such an amount of ignorance of the true condition of our people, or such recklessness of expenditure, as excites the alarm of all honest men. We understand that various schemes are on foot, looking to an increase of the liabilities of the State. Northern capitalists, should the Legislature continue this course, may for a time be misled, but they cannot fail to see, if this policy is protracted, that there must be a crash. By strong effort, the credit of the State may be maintained even under the pressure of the past management of our affairs, but if this policy is continued, the end is not far off.

We are not advised of the real condition of the State Treasury at present. At the opening of the former session of the General Assembly, $100,000 was borrowed on short time, which the subsequent returns of the Sheriffs may have enabled the Public Treasurer to replace. On the 1st of October, the interest on the public debt then due was paid, which, with the expenses of the Legislature and the departments of State, must by this time have nearly relieved the State exchequer of its surplus. The accruing expenses of the Legislature, the salaries of officers, &c., falling due on the 1st of January, and the payment of the public interest due at that period, will require an amount of means which may compel another loan. From all we hear of the Public Treasurer, he is disposed to manage his department with prudence and energy, but we fear that, in the sharp contest with practised and shrewder financiers, a person of his former business habits will find it difficult to contend with them.

Common rumor states that, in the sale recently effected by the Public Treasurer of the $180,000 North Carolina Railroad bonds, with coupons at 8 per cent., guaranteed not only by the State, but by a mortgage on the Railroad, he realized only $117,600 in greenbacks,—a discount of $62,400! These bonds are regarded as worth at least 80 cents in the dollar in the market, and ought to have commanded that sum. It may be said that he felt obliged to take what he was offered, but we apprehend his necessities did not compel such a sacrifice, and, by withdrawing them from the market, which he had the right to do, a little financial shrewdness, it is believed, would have secured 80 cents in the dollar. We do not mention this as a complaint against the Public Treasurer, because he no doubt felt that he was doing the best he could, but, in view of these facts and our other financial difficulties, with what face can the Legislature go on with reckless expenditure? It is seriously proposed to appropriate $100,000 to the reanimation of the University. Where is the money to come from, and the $600,000 to put afloat prosperously our Public School system, and the $200,000 or $300,000 for the Penitentiary, and the $400,000 to pay the annual expenses of the State Government, and the $1,240,000 to pay the interest on the State debt for 1869, and the $1,000,000 or $500,000 more to pay the Federal tax? Let Legislators ponder, before they take another step. Already, the spirit of repudiation is growing in the State. A little more of this reckless expenditure will set the people, black and white, on flame for repudiation. Will they rush on under such circumstances? We hope they will consider awhile, with North Carolina bonds now staggering under the load and hard to dispose of at 64@64.

There can be no "peace," day nor night, to our people, with poverty and bankruptcy staring them in the face. If they had full purses and good grounds to hope for relief from crushing taxation, then they might hold up their heads and wait for the breaking of the day. But crushed in pocket and spirit, as they are, what can inspire them with hope, when our Legislature exhibits reckless extravagance, and when our financial arrangements are thus hampered?

CRAZY.—It is given out that one Clayton, "who writes himself Governor" of Arkansas, is crazy,—the supposition being based on the fact that he has issued a proclamation declaring eleven counties to be in a state of insurrection, on account of the assumed indisposition of the people of these counties to treat Clayton's carpet-bag officials with becoming deference. If such a proceeding, on the part of Clayton, is symptomatic of dementia, there are other "Governors" that we wot of who have all the madness of the moon.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.—This document was transmitted to the two Houses, on yesterday, but inasmuch as, contrary to custom, we have not been supplied with a copy of it, and therefore have not seen it, and did not hear it read, we must defer any further allusion to it, until we shall have seen and read it.

SPECULATIONS.

Observing men, under a uniform rule of given causes and effects, may argue safely as to future results,—making due allowance for contingencies; but when the spirit of change and revolution is abroad, when the surface of society is upturned, long established principles and usages are supplanted, and new and untried ones take their places, time is the only revealer of results. Such is, to a great extent, the present status of American affairs. Speculation, therefore, as to the future, in which many seem disposed to indulge, in regard to the character of Gen. Grant's administration, must necessarily be uncertain. Every good citizen will hope for the best, but the tendency of the policy of the party in power is unmistakably to centralism and the consolidation of all the powers of the government in the hands of Congress. With a decided working majority in the next Congress, it is not likely it will readily yield the power it has usurped upon the plea of necessity, and put its policy in jeopardy by lessening its hold, until the policy of Gen. Grant is more fully developed.

We are not of those who look with confidence to the restoration of the Constitution and the government, under Gen. Grant. Hence the remainder of the 40th. Congress may be looked to for strong measures, in order to secure the vantage ground obtained and to guard the party against a change of policy in the future.

Most of the speculations of the press originate in the impression that General Grant, as well as the bulk of his supporters, are moderate or conservative Republicans. Many of these disclaim that they are Radicals, and throw back the charges in the teeth of those who make them. Has not this been the case, from the origin of the party? Have they not professed strong opposition to the violent measures of the party, at all times, and yet always voted with them to sustain those very measures which they deprecated? The truth is, the Radical portion of the Republican party holds the whip hand. It has heretofore controlled the party and will do so, if it has to attempt to use General Grant, as it has done Mr. Johnson. What will be the result, no human foresight can determine.—The lovers of civil liberty must watch and wait, but be sure to secure what influence they have and increase its weight, by energy, industry and prudence.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, NOV. 17, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 12 o'clock.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names, viz: Messrs. Barrow, Barnes, Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Davis, Eaves, Epps, (colored.) Forkner, Galloway, (colored.) Hyman, (colored) Lassiter, Lindsay, Long, Moore of Carteret, Moore, of Yancey, McLaughlin, Purdie, Rich, Respass, Robbins, Walker, Wynne, Winstead and Wilson—27; and a quorum.

The President then addressed the Senate as follows:

"Senators: We have met again for the purpose of entering upon the discharge of our public duties. Permit me to congratulate you on your safe return to your posts, and to indulge the hope that your intercourse with your constituents, during the recess, has been pleasant to you and will prove profitable to them. I feel well assured, by the earnest and zealous manner in which you discharged your duties at our last sitting, that the people of North Carolina have confided their interests to trustworthy servants, who love the State and whose every aspiration will be to preserve her honor, to maintain her credit, to defend her good name and transmit it, without spot or blemish, to future generations, as the pride of her own people and deserving the admiration and worthy of the imitation of her sister States.

Since we parted, our country has passed through a heated political canvass. Two great parties were contestants for honor and preferment, each manfully and zealously striving to win the prize. The struggle is over; the battle has been fought, the victory won, and quiet has been restored and now prevails over our land. God grant that it may prevail forever, and that old friends, who have been so rudely and unnecessarily alienated by honest differences of opinion and convictions of duty, may be restored to their former relations, never to be estranged again, forever! Let ours be "the plans of fair delightful peace, unwarped by party rage to live like brothers," and when the sovereign people speak, let all bow in cheerful submission to their will.

Trusting that you will throw the mantle of charity over my short-comings as your presiding officer, and relying on your co-operation in administering and enforcing the rules of order, and invoking the blessings of Almighty God to rest upon and abide with us and our entire country, I do now declare that this body is ready to proceed with the public business."

The credentials of Messrs. Avery, Graham, Oates, and J. W. Stevens, were presented.

Mr. Respass moved their reference to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

Mr. Robbins did not see the necessity of the reference. He had examined the credentials and they were correct. It would save time to admit them at once and he hoped the motion would not prevail.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, thought the motion a proper one, and therefore should prevail.

Mr. Robbins moved to amend by instructing the Committee to report at once; which was accepted and the reference was made.

On motion of Mr. Moore, of Carteret, a Committee of three were appointed (in conjunction with a Committee from the House) to wait upon the Governor and inform him of the organization of the two Houses, and their readiness to receive any communication from him. Messrs. Moore, Robbins, and Jones constituted the Committee, who subsequently reported that the message of the Governor had been transmitted to the House, and would be sent to the Senate as soon as read there.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, presented a petition from the Commissioners of said county, in reference to the listing of taxes. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Brogden introduced a resolution tendering the use of the Senate Chamber to the Trustees of the University of North Carolina, after adjournment. Adopted.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS OF LAST SESSION.

Bill for the relief of Sheriffs and taxpayers in certain cases:

Mr. Barrow moved to postpone taking up the Calendar. Agreed to.

A message was received from the House, transmitting a resolution providing 10 cts. mileage to Sheriffs, who have visited Raleigh, in order to bring election returns.

Mr. Moore, of Yancey, moved a suspension of the rules, in order that it might pass its several readings.

Mr. Robbins said he did not see the propriety of the adoption of the resolution. There was no law requiring Sheriffs to visit Raleigh to make said returns. Those who had come did so on their own responsibility.

Mr. Barrow also opposed the adoption of the resolution, as there was a sufficient compensation already provided for Sheriffs by law.

Mr. Moore withdrew his motion to suspend the rules.

A message was received from the House transmitting the Governor's message, with accompanying documents, with a proposition to print 20 copies for the use of each member.

The message was read, and, on motion of Mr. Brogden, the proposition to print was agreed to.

Mr. Long, from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, to whom were referred the credentials of Messrs. Avery, Graham, Oates and Stevens, recommended that Messrs. Graham and Stevens be qualified and be permitted to take their seats.—Having examined Mr. Avery, they find that he was a Solicitor before and during the war, but had not taken an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and that Mr. Oates was Sheriff before the war. The Committee, therefore, submitted the question of their eligibility to the Senate for its action.

The report was adopted and Messrs. Graham and Stevens were qualified.

Mr. Respass now moved that Mr. Avery be allowed to qualify.

When, on motion of Mr. Barrow, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow, at 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, NOV. 17, 1868.

According to adjournment, the House was called to order at 12 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Long, of the House.

Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

On motion, the following gentlemen were allowed to qualify and take their seats, viz: Messrs. Williams, of Harnett, Smith, of Wayne, Painter, of Jackson, and Seymour, of Craven.

The Clerk called the roll and a quorum was ascertained to be present.

A message was received from the Senate, informing the House of the organization of that body.

Mr. Ragland moved that a Joint Committee of three, on the part of the House, and two, on the part of the Senate, be raised, to wait on the Governor, to receive any communication that he might have to make to the General Assembly. Carried.

The chair then appointed Messrs. Ragland, Argo and Harris, of Wake, colored, on the part of the House.

A message was received, asking the concurrence of the House in a motion to raise a Joint Committee of five, on the part of the House, and three, on the part of the Senate, for the same purpose,—the Committee on the part of the Senate being Messrs. Moore, of Carteret, Jones and Robbins.

The Chair said that this anticipated the action the House had just taken, but, if there was no objection, the message would be concurred in, and Messrs. Sinclair and Bowman added to complete the number, on the part of the House. No objection.

After a short absence, Mr. Argo, Chairman of the Committee on the part of the House, returned and reported that the Governor would communicate with the House precisely at half past 12 o'clock.

By Mr. Justice, of Rutherford: A resolution allowing Sheriffs ten cents mileage, while travelling to make election returns.

On motion of Mr. Bowman, the rules were suspended to put the resolution on its immediate passage.

At the suggestion of Mr. Seymour, it was so amended so as to make it read as a joint resolution.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, wished to know the necessity of such a measure, as he knew that some Sheriffs had made their returns by mail, while others had not gone out of their counties.

Mr. Bowman proceeded to explain why some of the Sheriffs had, for good reasons, come to the Capital to make their returns to the Secretary of State. In his Congressional District, he knew that Sheriffs, under the advice of their legal advisers, had gone to Asheville, and, finding no one authorized to count the vote, had come to Raleigh; and he thought it nothing but right to reimburse them for the expense incurred by them in discharge of their duties.

A. S. Seymour said he knew of many Sheriffs that did not come here, but he would vote for the resolution, if it was amended so as to pay for miles "actually and necessarily travelled."

J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, wished the resolution to lay over for a day or so, in order to vote intelligently upon it. He was perfectly willing to reimburse any officer for expenses incurred in the discharge of his duty, but he was not willing to open the door to men to draw money that were not legally entitled to it. Not that he thought any would do such a thing, but then they might, and he wished to prevent any possibility of such a thing. He was willing to vote for the resolution, if it should be so amended as to make it in favor of the Sheriff of Mitchell County, who was here and properly vouched for.

Mr. Bowman said he would agree to the proposition.

Mr. Seymour objected to the resolution in that form.

Mr. Bowman then entered upon a defense of the resolution, and of the measure, generally, and, in his remarks, stated that the Sheriff of his county (Mitchel) had come to the Capital by the the advice of Judge Henry.

Mr. Argo said he thought the question of the legality of Sheriffs repairing to the seat of government was a settled one, and, in proof of his position, called attention to the "act to provide for the election of Electors of President and Vice President," section 5, which declares that they shall do so, and the question was as to the amount of the mileage.

After a discussion of some duration, the resolution, as amended by Mr. Seymour, passed its final reading.

The Clerk then read the message from the Governor, transmitted to the Speaker, during the foregoing discussion, by the hands of the Private Secretary.

On the conclusion of the reading, Mr. Argo moved that the message and the accompanying reports, (those of the Superintendent of the Insane Asylum, President of Board of Directors of the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institution, &c.,) be transmitted to the Senate, with a proposition to print 20 copies for each member. Agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Sinclair, the House then adjourned until to-morrow morning, 11 o'clock.

THE VOTE OF DELAWARE.—Gov. Saulsbury, of Delaware, has issued his proclamation announcing the vote in that State on the choice of presidential electors and representatives in Congress. The majority of the democratic electors is 3,343, and that of Major Benjamin T. Biggs, for Congress, is 3,325.

[From the New York World.]

NATIONALIZING THE RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE.

"In the Convention which framed our Federal Constitution, Alexander Hamilton proposed a clause securing the right of suffrage, so far as regards the choice of Representatives in Congress, to every free male adult citizen of the United States. The proposition was not adopted, as with many other excellent suggestions from the same and kindred sources. Colonel Hamilton was in advance of his age. Hardly a defect which he pointed out in the Constitution adopted has not since been proved such by sad experience; hardly a peril which he apprehended has since failed to be realized; while, of the provisions actually adopted, a large proportion owe their existence or their perfection to his eminent prescience.

As now, we hear, is meditated to perfect and adopt a constitutional amendment defining and fixing the conditions of the right of suffrage throughout the Union.—We hope it may be made and may prevail; but we warn those who engineer it that they will fail if they make it one-sided and partisan. We ardently desire the complete enfranchisement of the blacks; but a measure looking to this end along will encounter a resistance too formidable to be overcome. It may and probably will command in Congress the requisite two-thirds of each House, but it will not be ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the States."—Tribune.

There are many indications that the next advance to be attempted by the Radicals, is to put the right of suffrage in all the States under Federal control. Quite a number of their leading journals have already declared in its favor, and very likely an amendment to the Constitution having that object, will be proposed at the next session of Congress.

We rather like the ingenuousness of the Tribune in beginning its advocacy of this measure with a warm indorsement of the political views supported by ALEXANDER HAMILTON in the Convention that framed the Constitution. He was a monarchist at heart, and avowed in the Convention that he thought the government of Great Britain the best in the world. In the plan which he proposed, he sought to bring our government as near to monarchy as he thought the republican sentiments of the people would possibly tolerate. He wished a President for life; a Senate for life; a national veto upon State laws; an absolute veto of acts of Congress by the President, not a veto which could be overruled by a two-thirds majority, but one which precluded all reconsideration of the vetoed bills. These were the outlines of the system which the Tribune consistently indorses in advocating the regulation of the suffrage by Federal authority. It will not be difficult to show that Hamilton's proposed clause on the suffrage perfectly tallied with the other parts of his plan. Before proceeding to do this, we will furnish some indisputable evidence of his anti-republican sentiments.

Hamilton's speech in the Convention in support of his plan was reported by his colleague, Judge Yates, from notes taken during its delivery. The following is an extract:

"To avoid the evils deducible from these observations, we must establish a general and national government, completely sovereign, and annihilate State distinctions and State operations; and unless we do this, no good purpose can be answered." (See "Yates' Notes of Debates of Federal Convention," Albany edition, pp. 132-3.)

Governor Morris, in a letter to Robert Walsh, February 5, 1811, said of Hamilton: "He never failed, on every occasion, to advocate the excellence of, and avow his attachment to, monarchy." "He disliked the Constitution, believing all republican government to be radically defective;" and "he hated republican government, because he confounded it with democratical government." Governor Morris was one of Hamilton's most intimate and confidential friends.

These are the views whose wisdom and sagacity the Tribune now finds it necessary to endorse as a means of preparing the way for the regulation of the suffrage by the Federal Government. The Tribune is herein logical and consistent. If any plotter against our liberties were to prescribe the steps for transforming the republic into an empire, the most important in the list would be to bring the suffrage under Federal control and make it absolutely universal. It has a deceptive semblance of deference to the popular will, well calculated to mask its anti republican tendency and put the vigilance of the people asleep. Hamilton's proposal, respecting the suffrage, had no other design. He would have had everybody vote for members of the lower branch of Congress, but would have allowed that branch but little power. The power to make war, the most tremendous possessed by any government, was, in his plan, lodged in a Senate, holding for life, and entirely independent of the people. A President, holding for life and irresponsible to the people, could negative the action of their Representatives, State and Federal; and there was to be no redress, either by re-passing the bills over his veto, or by electing a different man for President. Hamilton, who notoriously had no confidence in the people, wished to give them universal suffrage as a sop to reconcile them to institutions which would have deprived them of all real power. This has since become the standing prescription for erecting thrones on the ruins of republics. The first Napoleon, in 1804, and the second in 1852, was elected emperor by universal suffrage, as poor Maximilian was in Mexico during our civil war. If a monarchy were to be established in this country, it would first be necessary to "nationalize the suffrage," as a means of procuring a national constituency to which the question could be submitted. When the thirty-seven distinct bodies of voters shall have been melted down into one, deriving their right to vote from the central authority, the Radical party will trouble itself no farther about amendments to the Constitution, as they will then have a basis for claiming that the will of the consolidated nation, as expressed by a majority of its voters, would be supreme. Instead of consulting thirty seven distinct constituencies, when great changes are proposed, they will be submitted to the whole nation en masse, and one-fourth of the States will be no longer permitted to negative amendments.

This effect would equally follow, whether this proposed "national suffrage" should be universal or restricted. The whole body of voters in the country forming one constituency, its majority would be logically regarded as the supreme authority, and instead of thirty seven States, having an equal voice in organic changes, we should have one body of national voters who would decide all questions, amendments to the Constitution as well as others. A monarchy could be established then by a simple and direct process. No change would lend so powerfully to accomplish Hamilton's wish and "annihilate State distinctions and State operations."

But if this "national suffrage" were restricted to intelligent white citizens, the transition to a monarchy would be comparatively slow. We should not then witness abuses of the suffrage which would afford the pretext and the justification of depriving the people of the substance of power while leaving them its shadow. The country is to be reconciled to monarchy by degrading the suffrage and rendering popular institutions disgusting. The operation of the principle which the Tribune seeks to establish, is well illustrated, on a small scale, in this State. What is the pretext of the Republicans for refusing self-government to the city of New York?—Why, that the voting population is so vicious and degraded, that it cannot be safely trusted with the control of our municipal affairs, and that the city must therefore be governed by the central authority at Albany. We will not stop to contest the fact, as that is not necessary to our present purpose; but the principle which underlies the Republican argument is perfectly clear. It is, that a degraded suffrage is one of the most dangerous elements in a government, and needs to be held in check, and deprived of its capacity for mischief, by a superior authority. Degrade the suffrage in whole sections of the country, by introducing into it large masses of barbarism and ignorance, and a ready argument will be furnished for transferring the control of their affairs to a central authority, which must be strengthened in proportion to the amount of repression it is called to exercise. And when the people have become reconciled to the exercise of such dominion over a third of the States, they will have no ground to stand upon in resisting its extension over all.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:

Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $339,949.66.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual, such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section and to stop the annual drain of over six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance, and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

NEW YORK.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 60, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE

of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURE, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass the above named; but it must not be forgotten that the danger of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the assured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Horse Stolen.

STOLEN FROM MY STABLES, on Friday night last, in Wake County, 10 miles northwest of Raleigh, on the Hillsboro' Road, my SORREL HORSE. He is a low animal, with white in his forehead, with several saddle galls on his back, and his left hind foot, when standing, crooks in. He is about 12 years old. I think the thief went in the direction of Raleigh. I will be much obliged to any one who will aid a poor man in the recovery of the horse.

That valuable estate known as Bucklesbury, in the county of Bertie, is for lease: Apply to Thos. Goode Tucker, Gaston.—See advertisement for particulars.

United States Blue-Book: J. A. Jones, Bookseller, Fayetteville Street.

Crockery and Glass Ware, a fine variety of Kerosene Lamps, &c: J. Brown, (with Hart & Lewis.)

Southern Life Insurance Company: W. A. Caldwell, General Agent for North Carlina.

ERRATUM.—In speaking, on yesterday, of the telegram from this city, embodying the substance of a conversation with "Gov." Holden, we inadvertently attributed it to the correspondent of the New York World. We should have said "Herald."

LARGEST PEACH ORCHARD IN THE WORLD.—It is not generally known that Col. J. M Heck, of this City, Dr. W. J. Hawkins, Peter Davis, Esq., of Warren, and W. A. T. Johnston, of Delaware, are planting at Ridgway, on the Raleigh & Gaston Rail Road, more than two thousand acres, (making two hundred thousand trees,) in peach trees alone. They have, besides, a large amount of apple and pear trees and many thousand grape vines.

Such enterprises as these will soon tell on the wealth of the whole State.

MR. COWARDIN'S LECTURE.—Owing to the exceeding inclemency of the weather, last night, Mr. Cowardin's Lecture on the "Horrors of Reconstruction" was postponed until this evening.—Mr. St. Maur surrendering Tucker Hall for the occasion. The latter gentleman will commence his series of entertainments to morrow night.

We hope that Mr. Cowardin will be greeted with a large audience, to-night.—There is a general anxiety to hear his inimitable representation, and we have no doubt, therefore, that such will be the case.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.—We take pleasure in inviting public attention to the announcement of W. A. Caldwell, Esq., General Agent for North Carolina of the Southern Life Insurance Company. This institution is in all respects perfectly reliable and is placed under auspices of the highest talent, respectability and efficiency. It challenges the support and encouragement of the Southern community. At an early day we shall publish the address, setting forth its advantages and claims, from Gen. Jno. B. Gordon, of Georgia, the President of the Company.

A PUFF "AS IS A PUFF."—The "Governor's" organ thusly pufferh the Lieutenant Governor:

"Mr. Caldwell is in excellent health, and still wears the harness on his back."

Couldn't the organ do better for Mr. Caldwell than that, if it thought it necessary to do anything at all? Rumor has it that the entente cordiale is not very perfect between the "Gov." and his Lieutenant. The "Gov." affecteth the carpet-bagger; his Lieutenant affecteth the native breed.

THE Woman Insulter still talks of "intimidation of voters." Will it please "overhaul" Extra Billy Smith's performance in that line, at Company Shops, and, as Capt. Cuttle would say, "when found, make a note of it?"

DEADHEADS.—We learn that a vast and sweeping system of dead-headism prevails on the North Carolina Railroad, under its present management. A gentleman who came down on the morning train, a few days since, informs us that he is certain that the bulk of the passengers,—Radical officials, of one sort or another, mostly,—were travelling on free tickets.

GUILFORD LAND AGENCY.—We learn that the enterprising efforts of Messrs. Zimmer and Gretter, of Greensboro, to introduce settlers into the State from the North have met with encouragement. A gentleman from Canada has recently effected a purchase of lands in Guilford, and parties from Maryland and other sections are making investigations, which we hope will lead to extensive immigration. No section of the Union offers greater inducements than do the soil, climate and productions of North Carolina. Every effort, therefore, to introduce into the State an industrious, thriving population will add to our strength, and ought to be encouraged.

SEVENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

We learn that the official returns from sixteen counties of this District have been received, at the office of the Secretary of the State, which foot up as follows: Durham 8,594, Jones 8,016. The vote in the remaining four counties, though not official, is authentically ascertained to stand thus:

| | Durham. | Jones. |
|---|---|---|
| Rutherford, | | 596 maj. |
| Ashe, | 11 maj. | |
| Alleghany, | 49 " | |
| Clay, | 80 " | |
| Add as above | 8,594 | 8,016 |
| | 8,734 | 8,612 |
| | 8,612 | |
| Durham's maj. | 122 | |

So that, we presume, there can no longer be a doubt of Mr. Durham's election,—which is one of the most gratifying results of the late canvass and a splendid evidence of the efficiency with which that gentleman bore our banner in the mountains.

Goldsboro' Immigration Meeting.

FRIDAY, Nov. 13th, 1868.

The meeting was called to order by the Hon. W. T. Dortch, on whose motion Dr. S. S. Satchwell, of New Hanover county, was requested to act as Chairman of the meeting, and Messrs. A. T. Mial, of Wake, and T. A. Granger, of Wayne, as Secretaries.

The Chairman explained the object of the meeting in a few but very neat remarks, stating that the meeting was not called to injure the industrious colored laborer but to save our lands from ruin and desolation and our State from destruction; whereupon the names of the delegates present were called for.

The counties represented were as follows:

Wayne.—Hon W T Dortch, Maj J C Slocumb, Dr Dan'l E Smith, Col L W Humphrey, Dr W H H Cobb, John Isler, W F Atkinson, T A Granger, Dr W H Moore, W G Hollowell, Capt R T Faighum, Dr E H Goelett, Julius A Bonitz, Col M K Crawford, N B Stevens, Col John P Cobb, Col J T Kennedy, and Col A F Moses.

Wake.—A T Mial, E E Gill, F H Mangum, N Price, Q Busbee, and Dr R B Haywood.

Johnston.—N L Whitley, T H Atkinson, A G Lee, L R Waddell, J W B Watson, A M Noble and J McClair.

Wilson.—Wm Barnes, W C Ellis and Jas S Woodard.

Lenoir.—Council Wooten, Shade Wooten and Levi Dawson.

New Hanover.—Dr S S Satchwell, Colonel Powers and Dr Robinson.

Pitt.—L J Barrett and R A Bynum.

Sampson.—Dr P Murphy.

Duplin.—B J Milliard.

Craven.—Jas S Lane.

Onslow.—C Stephens.

On motion of Col. Powers, of New Hanover, the Chairman was authorized to appoint a committee, consisting of one from each county represented, to confer with the Messrs. Atkinson and Trueb, as to what steps are necessary to be taken to secure reliable laborers and immigrants from Europe.

The chair appointed Messrs. P H Mangum, of Wake, J W B Watson, of Johnston, Wm Ellis, of Wilson, Jas S Lane, of Craven, W T Dortch, of Wayne, P Murphy, of Sampson, Council Wooten, of Lenoir, R A Bynum, of Pitt, Dr Robinson, of New Hanover, C Stephens, of Onslow and B J Millard, of Duplin.

After a short consultation the committee returned and reported, that they had had such conference with Messrs. Atkinson and Trueb, and that the committee recommend those gentlemen as agents to go to Europe, and that it will be necessary to furnish to the amount of fifteen dollars in gold, or its equivalent, for each laborer desired, to defray expenses, which amount should be paid to Messrs. Atkinson and Trueb, before they leave this country on their mission; and they further recommend that the sum so advanced shall be deducted from the wages of the laborer imported, after he shall have gone to work. And the committee further recommend that such male laborers shall receive from $8 to 10 per month and board and boys and women from $4 to 6 per month.

The committee further recommends that this meeting, when it adjourns, shall adjourn to meet again on the 28th of November next, at Goldsboro', N. C.

The meeting was addressed by the Hon. W T Dortch, Jas S Woodard, Julius A Bonitz, Q Busbee, Dr Robinson and others in behalf of the noble enterprise.

On motion the chair appointed a committee of three consisting of Messrs. W T Dortch, Jas S Woodard and Q Busbee to prepare an address; stating inducements and advantages North Carolina offers to Immigrants, &c., which address is to be translated into the German language and circulated to some extent in Germany and Switzerland.

On motion the Chairman was authorized to appoint a committee to prepare Constitutional By-Laws, and Rules for an Immigration Society, and to gather other information touching the subject of immigration and to report the same at the next meeting on the 28th inst.

The chair appointed Messrs. Thomas H Atkinson, of Wayne, Dr. Robinson and J. McMillan, of New Hanover, to constitute the committee.

On motion the Chairman was instructed to request the several Railroads in the State, to pass all Delegates to the Immigration Convention on the 28th inst., to and from Goldsboro', at half fare.

Mr. Dortch offered the following resolutions which were adopted:

Resolved, That the people of this section of North Carolina are greatly indebted to the Messrs. Atkinson for their successful efforts in introducing foreign laborers.

Resolved, That this meeting are pleased at the offer of Messrs. Atkinson and Trueb, to go to Europe for more laborers, and endorse them as reliable and trustworthy gentlemen.

On motion the thanks of the meeting were voted to the Hon. W. T. Dortch, for his calling this meeting; and, also, to the Chairman and Secretaries of the meeting for their valuable services.

On motion the Goldsboro' Daily Messenger and Weekly News and all other State papers friendly to the cause are requested to publish these proceedings.

AN ALLEGED MURDERER.—The Governor, on Saturday, issued a warrant to the sheriff of Norfolk to deliver to Miles C. Brinkley, sheriff of Chowan county, North Carolina, William O'Neil, who is in his custody.—O'Neil is charged with having committed a murder in Chowan county.—Rich. Whig, 16th.

The New York Star exclaims with surprise, "a town in Texas actually uses gold and silver currency." What will it say when it learns that there is not a town in Texas, except Galveston, which uses anything else? ## Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17, P. M.

The Chief Engineer of the army reports that the restoration of Forts on the Southern sea coast continues, and a large portion of the defences at New Orleans, Pensacola and Mobile have been placed in condition for use.

He asks the appropriation of six-hundred and forty-four thousand dollars for Forts on the Southern coast, and one hundred thousand for Fort Monroe; also for the improvement of the mouth of the Mississippi, three hundred and seventy-five thousand. The aggregate asked for Rivers and Harbors is six and a half millions.

The Quartermaster General's report states that his expenditures during the year were thirty-six and a half millions. The payments by Southern Railroads towards the settlement of their accounts, to the close of September last, had amounted to four millions of dollars, while the total debt of the Roads is eight millions and five hundred thousand. Sixteen Roads have paid in full. Of the total amount unpaid, nearly two-thirds is the debt of four Roads in Tennessee.

The following Supervisors have been appointed, viz: Alexander Fulton, for Delaware, Maryland and the District of Columbia, and W. T Bennett for North and South Carolina.

General Grant visits Boston and other Atlantic cities, before returning.

All disposable mounted recruits at Carlisle Barracks have been ordered West, to fight the Indians.

A special to the New York Times says:

"Messrs. Cliff and Prince, Republican members of Congress from Georgia, called at the Army headquarters to-day to represent the condition of things in that State. They assert, that there was no protection at many of the polls for loyal men, &c.," (the usual stuff.)

FROM FLORIDA.

TALLAHASSE, Nov. 17, P. M.

The circular of the "Unterrified Tiger Committee," published to-day, endorses and recommends "Col." W. M. Saunders, (negro,) as the people's candidate for the 41st Congress, as a representative man of his race, and of the people of the South. Saunders takes the stump at once.

A poetical description of about one hundred lines on the impeachment situation appeared in Reed's interest, this morning, and affords much amusement to rebels "so-called."

Lt. Gov. Gleason, to-day, issued a proclamation, dated yesterday.

He states that at a special session of the Legislature, a quorum of both Houses was present Gov. Reed recognized them by sending messages and transacting business with them—that twelve members of the Senate were present—that the impeachment of an officer is in no sense a legislative business, but is exclusively judicial in its character, and such as may be as well transacted at a special, as a regular term—that the Constitution declares that any officer, when impeached, shall be deemed under arrest and disqualified from performing any of the duties of his office, until acquitted by the Senate,—that Harrison Reed has shown gross contempt of all of the people of the State and their Assembly, when impeached,—and their Senate, the only tribunal under the Constitution which has jurisdiction in cases of impeachment,—and has violated the Constitution of the State.

He declares that all the powers of the government have devolved upon him (Gleason) and calls upon all citizens to aid him in their discharge and execution; and to put down the lawlessness and anarchy that must ensue, if any man impeached refuses submission to law, &c.

The document is signed by Gleason, countersigned by Alden, Secretary of State, and bears the impress of the seal of State.

Gov. Reed also has a State seal, said to be a duplicate of the original.

What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by

OUR CHILDHOOD.

BY GEO. D. PRENTICE.

'Tis sad, yet sweet, to listen
To the soft wind's gentle swell,
And think we hear the music
Our childhood knew so well;
To gaze out on the even,
And the boundless fields of air,
And feel again our boyhood's wish
To roam like angels there.

There are many dreams of gladness
That cling around the past,
And from the tomb of feeling
Old thoughts come thronging fast;
The forms we loved so dearly
In the happy days now gone,
The beautiful and lovely,
No fair to look upon.

Those bright and gentle maidens,
Who seemed o formed for bliss,
Too glorious and too heavenly
For such a world as this—
Whose dark, soft eyes seemed swimming
In a sea of liquid light,
And whose locks of gold were streaming
Our brows so sunny bright.

Whose smiles were like the sunshine
In the spring-time of the year—
Like sh changeful gleams of April, disclosed every tear.
passed—like hopes—away,
loveliness has fled;
heart is mourning
are with the dead.

bri ghtest beds of summer,
They have fallen with the stem;
Yet, oh! it is a lovely death
To fade from earth like them!

And yet the thought is saddening
To muse on such as they
And feel that all the beautiful
Are passing fast away;
That the fair ones whom we love
Grow to each loving breast
Like the tendril of the clinging vine,
Then perish where they rest.

And we can but think of these,
In the soft and gentle spring,
When the trees are waving o'er us,
And the flowers are blossoming;
And we know that winter's coming
With his cold and stormy sky,
And the glorious beauty round us
Is budding but to die.

A Louisville poet writes as follows apropos of the first appearance of a case of Grecian bend in that city:

She stepped upon the platform—
Her grace I can't forget—
For oh! that Grecian bend of hers
Clings to my memory yet.
Her smile was like the sunbeam,
Her locket 'some,' you bet;
But that lovely Grecian bend of hers
Was the "heaviest" bend I met.
Her waterfall was gorgeous,
And all who saw contend
That her grace was never equalled
By the Saratoga bend.
But alas, for maiden beauty,
Dust will return to dust,
And the most enchanting bender
Is doomed to moth and rust.
In stooping to assume her seat,
(I hate to tell bu must,)
Some whalebone thing that stayed her up
Bent double—and then bust!
She softly sighed, and sweetly smiled,
And then in accents tender,
As she rubbed her back, she genily said:
"Thank Heaven, I'm off my bender!"

HIT HIM AGAIN.—A good story is told on Hancock, a scallawag Judge in Mississippi. He had been endeavoring to convert a conservative negro, and failing swore that any nigger who voted against his own color and race, ought to be hung. Sambo hung his head for a moment, as if in deep meditation, and then looking the Judge straight in the face, said: "You say a nigger who votes agin his own race ought to be hung?" "Yes," said the Judge, "he ought to be hung." "Well, Judge," said Sambo, "what do you think ought to be done wid de white man who vote agin his own race and color?" The Judge bid his sable friend good night and has never invited him to his house again.
